Experiencing	Belonging	Searching	Owning
I experience how the Episcopal Church loves God and loves neighbors as themselves by serving alongside others. I experience how the Episcopal Church cares for creation. I experience serving others as joining the vulnerable and those living on the margins of society.	I understand that God invites me and my faith community to work with God for peace, justice, human dignity and care of creation. I know that my faith community is called to serve the vulnerable and those living on the edge of society.	I am increasingly aware that loving God and loving my neighbor is complex, while I continue to serve others and creation.	I know that who I am called to be in the world is related to the lives of others and creation. I know my call to serve others in community with God and others.
I feel good when I use my gifts to help others.	I am curious about what gifts I have to serve others.	I have an increasing sense of my own passions for service with my own gifts to serve.	I know my particular gifts and calling to take part in God's mission and help others understand that they have gifts and a call to serve.
