

Path of Discipleship

SHARE

ADULTS

Experiencing	Belonging	Searching	Owning
I am open to invitations to attend worship and other events in my faith community. I begin to notice and name the ways that God is actively present in the world by listening to the faith stories of others and wondering about my relationship with God.	I enjoy hearing the faith stories of others. I notice that I have experiences of God to share with others. I feel safe sharing my experiences with God, when the people around me can be trusted. I notice that I can help make my faith community a place that welcomes others.	I am increasingly aware of a variety of ways people experience God's loving presence in life. I question my understanding of God's presence in my life with increased interest in the stories of others. I struggle to understand others' experiences with God when they are different from mine.	I am confident in how God has been present in my own life. I recognize that others' experiences with God don't need to be like mine to be real. It is natural for me to share my faith story. I find joy in inviting others to a life of faith and help them with their spiritual questions, joys, and concerns.
I notice how others experience Jesus' love.	I desire my own relationship with Jesus.	I wonder how I'm called to help others cultivate a relationship with Jesus.	I know Jesus as my Savior and am eager to share that gift with others.