ARTICLE 2 ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE CONVENTION

SEC. 201. ANNUAL MEETINGS.

(a) IN GENERAL.-- An annual meeting of the Convention shall be held in each calendar year.

(b) DATE AND PLACE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.— Except as provided under paragraph (2) or subsection (c), at each annual meeting, the Convention shall determine the date and place for the following annual meeting.

(2) ALTERNATE DETERMINATION OF DATE AND PLACE.—

(A) BISHOP AND STANDING COMMITTEE.-- The Bishop shall determine the date and place for the annual meeting, if—

- (i) the Convention does not set the date and place under paragraph (1); and
- (ii) the Bishop has the consent of the Standing Committee.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEE.-- The Standing Committee shall determine the date and place for the annual meeting, if—

- (i) the Convention does not set the date and place under paragraph (1); and
- (ii)(I) the office of Bishop is vacant; or
- (II) the Bishop is disabled or absent.

(c) CHANGE OF DATE OR PLACE.—

(1) SUFFICIENT CAUSE.— Any change in the date or place of the annual meeting under this subsection may be made only for sufficient cause as determined by—

- (A) the Bishop and the Standing Committee for any change under paragraph (2); or

- (B) the Standing Committee for any change under paragraph (3).
- (2) BISHOP AND STANDING COMMITTEE.— With the consent of the Standing Committee, the Bishop may change the date or place of the annual meeting.
- (3) STANDING COMMITTEE.— The Standing Committee may change the date or place of the annual meeting, if—
 - (A) the office of Bishop is vacant; or
 - (B) the Bishop is disabled or absent.
- (d) ABSENCE.— For purposes of this section, the Bishop shall—
 - (1) determine any period in which the Bishop is absent; and
